

Georgia Association of Paralegals

August 9, 2005 Meeting

Insurance Law

Sponsored by

John Zwald, Esq., Chandler, Britt, Jay & Beck LLC

John Zwald graduated from the University of Georgia in 1980 with a B.S. in Social Science Education, and in 1987, he finished his Masters of Science at Western Kentucky. In 1990, he received his J.D. from the University of Tennessee College of Law, graduating on the Dean's List with multiple honors, and was admitted to the Georgia Bar the same year, joining the firm of Carter & Ansley. There, he worked in all phases of insurance defense litigation, product liability litigation, and personal injury law. John moved to Alembik, Fine & Callner in 1995 continuing his work in product liability, insurance defense and drug and medical device liability litigation.

In 1998, he joined Carothers & Mitchell as a Partner, and continued to represent the State of Georgia, cities and counties in a wide range of areas, including insurance defense and coverage question litigation. He became a Partner with Chandler, Britt, Jay & Beck LLC in Buford, GA in December of 2004 where he specializes in Torts and Insurance Law, Eminent Domain, and General Litigation.

C. Lynn Smith, R.N., Hawkins & Parnell

Lynn Smith graduated from Georgia Baptist Hospital School of Nursing and obtained her nursing license in 1975. She stayed on at Georgia Baptist until 1983, during which time she rose from a Staff Nurse to Clinical Orientation Instructor, and then Head Nurse of the Medical Oncology/Hyperalimentation Unit where she converted a thirty-one bed general medical unit to a specialized oncology/hyperalimentation unit. She later designed, organized and established the first formal Nutrition Support Service in the Southeast while Metabolic Support Nurse, and was solely responsible for setting up a formal Neonatal Metabolic Support Service in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. Her team also assisted Metabolic Support teams across the country in establishing their own services.

Lynn left Georgia Baptist in 1983 to start ComfortCare, an in-home nutritional, antibiotic and chemotherapy support service, then sold it in May of 1984 to a group of physicians. From 1984 to 2000, she held multiple corporate positions, joining Hawkins & Parnell in 2000 as a medical paralegal, and part of a team that engages experts, obtains and analyzes medical records, and provides expert medical guidance to the Firm's asbestos cases.
